

Schools Close At Lewiston

Lewiston, May 11.—Funeral services over the remains of Thaddeus Huff of Teton, Idaho, were held at Lewiston, Thursday. The choir sang "The Deepening Trials." Prayer was offered by Bishop T. S. Karren. Singing, "I Need Thee." The speakers were, Brigham Pond, Mr. S. Skidmore of Smithfield; Lewis Pond of Gentile Valley; President B. A. Hendricks and F. A. Rawlins. All the speakers testified to the nobility of the character and the kind father and husband which Brother Huff had been during his life time. The choir sang, "Mid Scenes of Confusion." The benediction was pronounced by A. D. Smith. Interment was in the Richmond cemetery.

Tuesday evening the choir members and the 117th Quorum of Seventies entertained in honor of F. M. Stephenson who left this week for Tracy, California. The following program was rendered: Recitation, Etta Kent; comic song, John McKnight; duet, Ethlyn and Melba Taggart; address of welcome, Melvin Kent; comic song, Joseph Hyer; speech of appreciation, G. E. Pope; presentation of a watch fob as a token of remembrance from the quorum by John Anderson. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing.

Mrs. Elmira Hendricks of Richmond is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Stocks.

Mrs. Maud Stocks entertained the Ladies of the Art and Literary Club last Friday afternoon. Story, "The Revolt of Mother," was given by Sadie Bernhisel. The discussion was also given by Sadie Bernhisel; reading, "One Mother," Gale Lewis.

Sentiments on mother were given by members. Eleven members were in attendance. Mrs. G. A. Hogan was the guest of honor. Refreshments were served.

The Stephenson school gave their closing exercises Friday evening with the following program: Chorus, "The Star Spangled Banner"; recitation, M. Marler; piano solo, R. Layne; recitation, G. Morris; chorus, "Help Save Old Glory, Grammar Grades"; class prophecy, "A Dream of the Future," Z. Marler; conferring of certificates, Miss Smith, principal; valedictory, Joseph Haslam; address to the graduates, Roy Kent, Clarence Jamison, Joseph Mills, Joseph Haslam and J. Layne were the graduates.

The B. Y. College third year dramatic club tendered their services to the Lewiston branch of the Red Cross, Monday evening in the comedy entitled, "Charley's Aunt," which they gave in a very creditable manner. $115 was taken in after the expenses were paid, $85 was turned into the Red Cross treasury. Prof. Engar with his ladies chorus, of Preston, rendered beautiful music. Mrs. Maria J. Swinyard, chairman, and Mrs. Etta Pond generously entertained the boys and girls during their stay. The people of Lewiston expressed great appreciation for the services rendered during the evening and extends to them a vote of thanks.

Messrs. G. E. Pope, Martin Pond and Eric Hendricks are sporting about Lewiston in new cars.

Mrs. Louisa Mower of Ogden spent Monday in Lewiston.

Mr. Charles Bowden of Camp Kearney is home for the summer season on a furlough. Mr. Bowden looks well and happy and is enjoying his training thoroughly.

Dr. Lorin Lewis made a business trip to Lava Hot Springs last Friday.

A party was given at the Third ward Friday evening in honor of Floyd White who leaves on the 25th for service in the U. S. Army. The following program was rendered: Congregation singing, America; music, M. Kent; address, Joseph Haslam; reading, Miss Karren, address, Floyd White; comic paper, Mary Pond. Refreshments were served.

The Lewiston public schools held their closing exercises Thursday evening. 18 boys and girls were graduated. The following program was given: Chorus, "Old Glory, Wave On"; pantomime, America, and Yankee Doodle, Fifth Grade; reading, "Asleep At His Post," Vanda Pope; solo, Hazel Taggart; playlet, Dr. Snoogaster, A Joke, Sixth Grade; dance, Naomi Shepard and Velda Parkinson; class prophecy, Ethel Stocks and Ruby Swinyard; conferring of certificates, Principal C. B. Stoddard; valedictory, Vera Talbot.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lewis a fine baby boy Monday morning. Dr. W. B. Parkinson officiated.

Supt. R. Cole of the Lewiston Sugar Factory is ill and in a very serious condition.

Mr. Severenson and family of Richmond have moved to Lewiston and will make their home here.

Mr. Ed Cole and Walter G. Last are building fine new homes.

Mr. Earl Leavitt of Camp Kearney is enjoying a fifteen day furlough with his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Leavitt.

Master Kenneth Stocks and Miss TWO...LEWISTON ... I.C.'s; T Maxine Stocks are visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Esther Williamson of Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Watkins of Ogden are the guests of Mrs. Sarah Stocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor of Millville, formerly of Lewiston, are the proud parents of a fine baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Peary Jamison spent Sunday at Preston.

Miss Cardon of Logan spent over Sunday the guest of Mrs. Leora Worley.

Those citizens who failed to support the petition for a Carnegie library at Lewiston will be the first to realize the need of it when they who fought for it established it.

Mrs. Henry Otte demonstrator of Cache Valley will be at Lewiston on Friday and will give an all day demonstration beginning at 9:30. The making of different kinds of bread and renovating and pressing of clothes will be taken up.

Mr. Jack Kirk of Franklin spent Sunday at Lewiston.

A great many of the Lewiston M. I. A. workers attended the convention at Richmond Sunday afternoon.

Optimistic Thought.

The best reformers commence on themselves.

MEN ARE WANTED BY GOVERNMENT

The United States Government is looking for men who can take charge of branch offices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, and men to act as assistants in these offices. Branches are located in the principal commercial cities. The salaries range from $1800 to $3000 for managers and from $1200 to $1800 for assistants.

A noncompetitive examination will be held May 16 in various parts of the country. Applicants will be examined in export trade technique, promotion of commerce, and econo-mie geography, and credit will be given for knowledge of foreign languages.

The examinations will be under the direction of the Civil Service.

New Use for Carbonic Acid.
Carbonic acid gas is used in a machine of European invention to spray mortar or plaster on a wall and hasten its setting.

Makes Many Matches.
A single manufacturer in London makes nearly a thousand million boxes of matches every year.

Look for Love.
To be able to see the lovable traits in people is a wonderful help to happiness.

Logan City Council of Defense
War Chest Bulletin
No. 4,

FOR MERCY'S SAKE Wanted $40,000

One Great Fund for all War Relief Work

There are no fountains of blood for the emptying veins, but there are replenishments of medicine to ease pain, allay fever, and forestall danger of delay in operations.

There are numberless and nameless comforts, which it is our privilege to furnish for brave boys who have offered us all they have.

A member of the Logan City Council of Defense will be at your door. LET HIM IN. Don't make him wait, or coax or be disappointed. This is the time to write America in letters of gold upon History's undying page.

Give to the Logan War Chest

Keep this and Watch for Circular No. 5.